WHAT IT IS...

WHAT

Read for a Lifetime is a yearly literacy program for 9th through 12th grade students to promote the habit of reading for enjoyment

WHY

This program encourages students to read books, both classic and contemporary, in a variety of genres and rewards them for their efforts.

WHEN

Program runs from September through August each year.

Read a suggested title or a title from the over 4,000+ from YALSA Bookfinder: http://booklists.yalsa.net/ Includes fiction & non-fiction in all genres.

How it works:

1. Write your name & library card number below.
2. List the titles and authors of books read for this program.
3. Return to the library!

You are eligible to receive a completion certificate & select a book prize once you have read 4 books. Participants who receive a completion certificate all four years of high school receive a book of their choice.

NAME: _____

Library Card #: _____

1

2

3

4

Read for a Lifetime

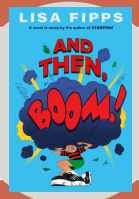

2026-2027

High School Literacy Program from

ROBEY MEMORIAL LIBRARY

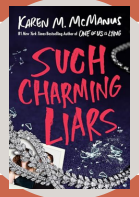

SUGGESTED TITLES

Poverty-stricken Joseph bravely rides out all the storms life keeps throwing at him.

Siblings at Bletchley Park race to crack Enigma & uncover their mother's disappearance amid wartime secrets, riddles, & danger.

Estranged step-siblings reunite at a billionaire's party, only to become murder suspects–and targets–forcing them to trust each other.

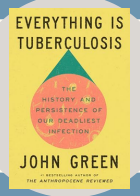

A high-achieving student leader must conquer her struggles with math or risk losing the presidency she's worked for.

A gripping account of Mount St. Helens' 1980 eruption, the lives lost, survivors, and heroes who warned others of impending disaster.

A Broadway-aspiring teen stuck working at her dad's game shop discovers fake flirting with a nerdy coworker may become real.

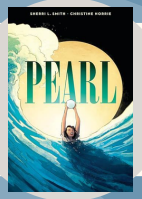

John Green explores tuberculosis through Henry's story, revealing the disease's history, human impact, and devastating healthcare inequities.

Set in the 1930s to today, four generations of Filipino American boys grapple with identity, masculinity, and father-son relationships.

A Japanese-American girl stranded in wartime Japan must navigate loyalty, family, and tragedy after Pearl Harbor changes everything.

After a former friend's mysterious death, an outsider must uncover her exclusive group's dark secrets before becoming their next victim.