100 BOOKS before high school

Free program to encourage Kindergartners through 8th graders to read 100 books before he or she enters high school.

Here is how the program works:

- Each child reads the book of their choice independently. (Parents may assist with difficult vocabulary, etc.)
- Complete the reading log for each book read.
- Every 20 titles completed, stop in the library for a reward!

The deadline for this program is the beginning of 9th grade, so take your time and enjoy the experience! Need help with book suggestions? Ask our staff! Stop at the Front Desk to register TODAY!

Read for a Lifetime

Free program to encourage 9th through 12th grade high schools students to stay in the habit of reading. How the Read for a Lifetime program works:

- Print (www.waukon.lib.ia.us/services/teens/reading-programs/read-lifetime) or pick up a reading log.
- Each student reads four titles between September and August.
- Return reading log to the library and pick out a book from our prize collection.
- Students who complete the program each year of high school (4) receives a book of their choice upon "graduation" out of the program.

The deadline for this program is August following the student's 12th grade year. Need help with book suggestions? Ask our staff!
